EXPERIENCE

CRO Specialist
01/2024 – 10/2026
Simpler Trading

- Owned the UI system behind high-traffic registration and marketing pages: shared modules, campaign patterns, and experiments aimed at signup and leads.
- Designed and built membership pricing comparisons, offer tables, and sales pages that move a buyer from the offer to signup with less friction.
- Shipped the conversion plumbing around those flows: GTM and dataLayer events, UTM and redirect logic, and membership and webinar paths.
- Ran A/B and multivariate tests with marketing, read the funnel, and changed the component or pattern that moves the number.

Senior User Experience Designer

Interface Specialist
2021 – Present
Simpler Trading

- Partnered with marketing teams to optimize client-facing digital experiences, resulting in increased user engagement, lead generation, and conversions.
- Managed website pages and functionality with JavaScript, executed content updates, and created animated presentations.
- Led graphic design and on-site promotions for a consistent brand experience.
- Built custom JavaScript on WordPress when the marketing site needed a behavior the theme could not do.

Owner
2010 – Present
David N Allen Design, LLC

- Built React and WordPress front ends, UI design, animation, branding, and packaging for sites and campaigns taken from concept through launch.
- Ran A/B tests and analytics on landing pages, scoring them on leads and signup, not on visuals alone.

SUMMARY

Senior front-end engineer in JavaScript, CSS, and SCSS. Builds the self-serve paths people use to compare plans, sign up, and check out, then instruments them so an experiment is trustworthy. React and Next.js for product UI. WordPress and custom JavaScript when a marketing site has to ship fast. Looking for a growth role that owns onboarding, plan choice, and checkout.
